PLUMMER HILL CUT DONE "TOUCHED" HIM FOR $35

Giant Steam Shovels Have Completed Their Work at the McConville Section And Now Only the Grading And Laying of Track is to be Done—Cut Was as Deep as 68 Feet in Some Places.

BIGGEST WORK ON THE CUTOFF

Steam shovel work on the Plummer Hill Cut on the Big Four cutoff has been completed and the monster shovels are now undergoing needed repairs so that they will be in shape to begin their next big work in top condition. The Plummer Hill cut was by far the deepest and longest of any made by Sims & Co., which firm had the contract for most of the Big Four cutoff work west of here. The job at cutting the hill away and making a level road bed for the new line was a big undertaking. The hill was more than one-half a mile long and the cut in some places was as deep as 68 feet. Two steam shovels were kept going day and night most of the time since the work began.

Much of the work being done by Sims & Co., already is completed and has been turned over to the railroad. Work at evening up the grade, laying the track and putting on ballast on the Plummer Hill section will be hurried along and that section will soon be ready for the railroad, too. The company expects to complete its work here within three months.

ARREST INTERURBAN MEN

COUNTY COMMISSIONER GEORGE RAINES SWEARS OUT WARRANT CHARGING THE WORKMEN WITH OBSTRUCTING THE PUBLIC HIGHWAY JUST SOUTH OF TOWN—CASE IS SET FOR TUESDAY—MEN GIVE BOND.

WERE WARNED BEFORE ARREST

County Commissioner and County Attorney James Went to the Scene And Ordered the Men Not To Throw Any More Dirt in the Road But Warning Had no Effect.

Orsan Shirley, construction foreman on the interurban work being done just south of town, and two of his workmen, were arrested Friday afternoon by Sheriff Maze on a warrant sworn out by county commissioner, George Raines, alleging that the men were obstructing a public highway. The men were brought to town immediately and taken before Squire Frank. Trial of the case was set for Tuesday and the men were released on $100 bond.

The arrest of the men followed a visit to the scene of the obstruction by Mr. Raines and County Attorney James, late yesterday afternoon. Mr. Raines had received a complaint that the interurban men were obstructing the road just west of the Monon overhead bridge, about a mile south of town. This is where the line will cross the road on a fill. The interurban company intended changing the roadway and building a concrete arch for the road to pass through. The arch has not been built yet, nor has the new road been constructed.

A trestle was built across the old roadway and the laborers were dumping dirt off of the trestle from the dump cars when the county officials arrived at the scene. There was barely room for a small vehicle to pass under the trestle at the time they arrived and they warned the men not dump any more dirt. The workmen paid no attention to the warning, however, and continued to dump. Mr. Raines and Mr. James immediately drove to town and swore out the warrant.

RUMOR IS RIFE THAT UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT WILL BE ELEVATED TO OFFICE OF BISHOP WHEN GENERAL CONFERENCE MEETS.

ELEMENT OF DOUBT ELIMINATED

Is the Averment Made by Those Wise In M. E. National Politics—Noses Counted and He is Posted Sure Winner.

The best laid plans of mice and men oft gang a-glee," and so it is in this case. The prime movers in the plan to make a canvass of the delegates already chosen to the next meeting of the General Conference of the M. E. Church, endeavored to cloak the scheme with secrecy and keep it quiet, made a slip and when the work had been accomplished and the result made known, it was too good to keep, and the news was whispered into the ears of a select few. The select few are keeping their own counsel, partially, but we have gotten next. The story told is that twelve of the present Bishops of the M. E. church are "getting along in years," and the work apportioned is too heavy for them. The delegates to the Conference who run things—they are not very numerous—understood the situation and concluded that the thing to do was to superannuate these faithful fathers in the fold and elect twelve younger men to fill the place. They then instituted proceedings to learn how the delegates felt in regard to this procedure, and whom the delegates favored for election to fill the vacancies. The task was a delicate one and policy was used in accomplishing the work. The round up, so report has it, demonstrates that Dr. Edwin Holt Hughes, President of DePauw University, is billed as a sure winner in the approaching election, which will be held when the General Conference meets next spring.

This is the story that is talked in the posted inner circle, so the word comes to us, and if true it indicates that the next school year will close the connection of Dr. Hughes with DePauw University, a fact that will cause widespread regret.

The Central Trust Company, through its attorney, S. A. The case has been taken to the supreme court and finally decided in favor of the plaintiff. The Central Trust Company as trustee of the estate and guardians of the children receive interest on the sum from the time the judgment was rendered against the rail road in the lower court. RUNAWAY IS CAUGHT HERE

COLUMBUS, OHIO, LAD FEARING THAT HIS MOTHER WOULD FOLLOW OUT THREAT TO SEND HIM TO THE REFORM SCHOOL, LEAVES HOME AND COMES TO GREENCASTLE.

ARRESTED WEDNESDAY EVENING

Peter Sacks, A Grocer and Meat Man Sends Ticket For the Return of His Son—Lad Says he Will go to Work When He Gets Home—is Only 15 Years Old.

Fearing that his mother would follow out her threats and send him to the reform school at Lancaster, Ohio, Joe Sacks, 15 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sacks, of Columbus, Ohio, ran away from home. He was arrested here last evening by Marshal Reeves on the information of a telegram from the lad's father.

Later the Marshal received another telegram telling the Marshal that a ticket had been sent to the Big Four station for the return of the boy and asked the officer to take the lad to the early afternoon train east and put him in charge of the conductor. The Marshal did as requested.

Young Sacks came to Greencastle on Monday and went to the Cottage Hotel. The fact that a boy friend of his, Hansel Davis, who lately moved here from Columbus, was here caused the boy to come to Greencastle. The Davis boy is employed at the A. & C. Stone Company quarries. On Monday night the runaway wrote a letter to his parents. This letter was answered by the telegram to the Marshal. When seen this morning Sacks seemed to be in excellent spirits. The anticipation of his return home seemed to please the lad. When asked why he ran away he said that his mother had threatened to send him to the reform school at Lancaster. He said that she did this because he refused to work although his parents had secured several positions for him. "I'm through with this running away, however, and when I get back I'll sure go to work," said Sacks, who is a bright appearing young fellow. His father, Peter Sacks, runs a meat market and grocery store.

THOUGHT BOY WOULD DIE

Thomas Gorham, 21 Years Old, Taken From the Vogle Home on the "Strip." Yesterday Afternoon, in a Terribly Intoxicated Condition—Brought to Jail in a Wagon.

Believing that the boy they were taking to jail was about to die, Officers Soper and Stone stopped two or three times yesterday afternoon expecting that Thomas Gorham, would never live to reach the jail. They had gotten him from the Gus Vogel home on the "Strip." He was in a terrible state of intoxication.

Each time the officers stopped the boy seemed to breathe better and he finally was gotten to the jail. Dr. Hutcheson was summoned and after a vigorous treatment managed to save the life of the young man. The doctor said, however, that Gorham was nearly dead when he reached the jail and that the officers were lucky in getting him there alive. It was hours before the victim was conscious.

The officers were called to the "Strip" yesterday afternoon to quiet a fight at the Vogel home. When they reached the scene they found no one but Gorham, who was "dead drunk." The condition of the house showed plainly that a "rough house" had taken place, however.

The officers started to walk to jail with him, but were soon forced to get a wagon. Several times on the way to the jail the boy's respiration became so feeble that the officers believed that he would die.

This morning he was sufficiently recovered from his spree to be taken before the Mayor and fined $11 for intoxication. The officers have been unable so far to get the facts regarding the trouble at the Vogel home, but the matter is being investigated. Gorham says he is 21 years old, but the officers believe he is a minor. They will investigate the matter of where the youth got the liquor.

The Rev. A. W. Sonne, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church here, but now of Vincennes, stopped off here Monday on his way to Kokomo where he will attend the State Sunday School Convention. Vincennes is a candidate for the next year's convention and Mr. Sonne is one of a committee who will boom the town for the next meeting place. Alfred Hirt accompanied Mr. Sonne to Kokomo from here. They left Tuesday morning.

SCHOOL HOUSE CONDEMNED

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH NOTIFYS MARION TOWNSHIP TRUSTEE THAT THE FILLMORE BUILDING IS NOT FIT FOR USAGE AND ORDERS THAT NO MORE SCHOOL SESSIONS BE HELD IN IT.

DR. HUTCHESON RECEIVES NOTICE

Says the Structure is Dilapidated, Unproperly Lighted, Insufficiently Heated and Insufficiently Ventilated—New Building Will be Constructed.

No longer can the school house at Fillmore be used for school purposes. The state board of health has condemned the building and has ordered that no school sessions be held in it after the date of the posting of the notice.

Dr. W. R. Hutcheson, county health officer, received the notice of condemnation this morning. He was instructed to post it on the school house door immediately. Dr. Hutcheson drove to Fillmore this afternoon and posted it.

Following is the notice:

Whereas, It has been shown to the satisfaction of the Indiana State Board of Health, in special session in Indianapolis May 21, 1907, that the school house at Fillmore, Putnam County, Indiana, is old, dilapidated, unsufficiently ventilated, unproperly lighted, unevenly warmed and otherwise unsanitary so as to threaten the health and lives of the pupils therefore it is ordered that the said school house is formally condemned for school purposes and shall not be used for said purposes after June 1, 1907.

In the letter to Dr. Hutcheson, which accompanied the notice, he was instructed to prosecute any person who should disregard the notice.

For several months, James Bunten, trustee of Marion township, has been trying to arrange for the building of a new school house in Fillmore. Several sets of plans have been submitted to the contractors but in each case the bids for the construction of the houses as planned were higher than the amount of money available. A new set of plans have lately been submitted to contractors and it is more than likely that their bids will this time come within the appropriation. Work on a new building will begin as soon as a contract is let.

BUNTEN-ARNOLD

On Wednesday evening, June 12, 1907, at "Walnut Grove," the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. J. Arnold, eight miles north-east of this city, occurred one of the prettiest Rose Weddings of the season, when their youngest daughter, Ada, was united in marriage to Albert E. Bunten in the presence of about fifty relatives and friends.

Promptly at 8:30 the bride and groom, unattended, were ushered to the front veranda, which was one bower of maple boughs, lighted with Japanese lanterns, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March with Miss Ina Perry presiding at the piano. There they were met by the Rev. E. B. Scofield of Indianapolis, pastor of the Christian Church, who pronounced a short and impressive ceremony, during which "The Rose and the Heart" was very sweetly rendered.

Immediately after the ceremony the party was ushered to the front parlor where they received congratulations after which they retired to the dining room where dainty refreshments were served by Misses Mary Detrich and Elsie Cowgill, and Misses Della Nichols and Lola Randolph presided at the punch bowl. Wedding bells were given as favors.

The bride was attired in white silk and carried an arm bouquet of white bride's roses and the groom wore the conventional black. The interior of the house was decorated in pink roses and ferns in abundance exclusively except the punch room which was in maple boughs. The bride is a Junior of the Greencastle High School and the groom is one of Putnam's promising young school teachers.

The bride and groom were well remembered with presents consisting principally of silver ware, china, linen and cut glass, also a check by the bride's father. Mr. and Mrs. Bunten will be at home to their friends at their new home "Fair View" after July 12.

WORKING WOMEN, WHAT THEY SHOULD KNOW

MRS. SADIE ABBOTT

MRS. PREE MCKITTRICK

Women for the most part spend their lives at home, and it is these women who are willing and ambitious that their homes shall be kept neat and tidy, who do their own cooking, sweeping, dusting and often washing, ironing and sewing for the entire family, who call for our sympathy.

Truly the work of such a woman is "never done" and is it any wonder that she breaks down at the end of a few years, the back begins to ache, there is a displacement, inflammation or ulceration of the abdominal organs, a female weakness is brought on, and the struggle of that wife and mother to continue her duties is pitiful.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, is the exact medicine a woman needs whose strength is overtaxed. It keeps the feminine organs in a strong and healthy condition.

In preparing for childbirth and recuperating therefrom it is most efficient. It carries a woman safely through the change of life and in making her strong and well assists her to be a good wife and mother.

Mrs. Sadie Abbott, of Jeannette, Pa., writes:

"I suffered severely with pain every month and also a pain in my left side. My doctor prescribed for me but did me no good; a friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I wrote you in regard to my condition. I followed your advice and am a perfectly well woman. The pains have all disappeared and I cannot recommend your medicine too highly."

THE STATE ENOUGH.

That Federal control is not necessary to insure justice to the people of a state from railroads and corporations is fully proved by the success with which Wisconsin has attacked the problem of control. If the officials of the state are active, if the judges are uncorruptable, if the people know what they want, demand it and stand firm for their demands they will get it sooner from the state than from the nation. The usual trouble with state and city administration is hedging by the politicians who conduct the affairs of state and city. They are timid, fearful of the interests. It is only necessary for a street or interurban railway to bluff sufficiently and locomotives may run the residential streets, pour smoke into the houses of private citizens, ruin paint, fresco and hangings, and the officials sit supine and watch the crooked finger of the corporation's attorney. In such cases it is a case of "Simon says thumbs up," and the thumbs are up at once. In Wisconsin it is not so. The people have succeeded in electing representatives of the people. They are unusual men. They are not popular with politicians. LaFollett is ostracized in Washington by the representatives of "the interests." Fairbanks looks upon him with distrust. A representative of the people is a strange bird there. But in Wisconsin they are numerous, and legislative ways have changed. A barber put it thus:

"Those guys are no good." The gang used to come here and spend money and gamble and have a good time, but this bunch is a lot of tight wads. Four or five of them get a room together and eat around at the little dumps. They don't pay no big hotel bills any more. Nothin' doin' at all. We'd all starve to death if we depended on them guys for oysters."

The representatives of the people are attending to business, and the peoples business. They fell upon the railroads, and the corporations are paying the expenses of the state. No state taxes were required of private individuals last year. The breweries are under control and paying taxes. The corporations conform to the law. The railroads are on their knees. It does not take a federal army to make things right. It needs only fearless state and city officials.

FACTS.

We noted, in another column, the remarkable statements made in a moment of political zeal by our honored contemporary, the Republican paper of Greencastle. We do not wish to comment further upon these statements. We do wish, however, to say this: Most things in this world have two sides, and people have the right to differ as to the side they take. The more vigorous the belief the more vigorous the espousal of a side. This is particularly true of politics. There are many questions local and national that are not decided. Opinions on these must differ. Such differences are legitimate. We expect to have decided and, perhaps, one-sided views on some of the issues before the people. We shall attempt always, however, to base our opinion upon fact. As least we shall attempt to state the facts so far as we know them. That is our political creed.

THE POWER OF THE STATE.

The power of a state to protect its citizens from the extortion of trusts and corporations depends upon the citizens themselves. If they tolerate laxness in their officials then they must expect to be robbed. This is illustrated by the action of Texas in the Standard Oil case. A jury has found the company guilty and sentenced it to pay a fine of over a million dollars and ordered it to cease to transact business in the state. From all over the country, however, comes the cry that this means nothing. It is the universal expectation that a higher court will reverse the finding of the jury and stay the fine. It is a sad condition of affairs when the people have so little faith in courts. It is not a matter of guilt. All know the Standard Oil is guilty. It is a matter of technicalities, and the people of Texas and all the states should demand that technicalities be banished, that they cease to be bulwarks of guilt and crime, hiding places for corporate corruption. What we need is the punishment of those who are proved guilty, be they corporations or individuals. There have been too many "immunity baths," too much of wrangling over points that have nothing to do with guilt or innocence. It is time the people, who are the basis of all laws, demand a revision making toward simplicity, making toward a law that will punish guilt be it rich or poor, and protect innocence, be it rich or poor.

A LEMON FROM GERMANY.

Those wise moguls of the Grand Old Party who are seeking to reform the tariff so that none of the petted industries now fattening upon the people will be touched, and yet the cry for tariff reform be quieted, have sold us out to Germany. Something had to be done. Germany was about to shut her ports to American meat and wheat. So Roosevelt sent over a committee of wise guys, friends of the tariff, to negotiate a new treaty. They did so. Now we learn that through their blundering Germany has succeeded in getting the right to send goods into this country practically free of tariff, while the prohibitive rate remains in Germany against our meat and farm products. Already the export trade is falling off. Thus do the friends of the tariff always make a mess of things in trying to favor the outworn practice of a protective tariff.

A REAL INCREASE.

Down at Morgan County they are investigating the county poor asylum. There is something to investigate. With a less number of inmates the expenses have been $2,000 more than in Putnam; the total expenses last year being $5,932. When we compare Putnam with other counties we find that we have a very economically managed and excellent county asylum. Many good Republicans are talking of voting for the Democratic ticket and less taxes down in Morgan.

THOMAS TO SPEAK

County's Director of Public Instruction on the Program of State Meeting of Superintendents.

Various subjects of interest to the county superintendents and the school patrons of the state will be discussed by the county superintendents, who have been called to hold their fifty-third semi-annual meeting June 19 and 20, in room 67 of the state house. The program for the meeting, which has just been finished by a committee consisting of Samuel Scott of Jeffersonville, president of the Superintendent's Association and William Clem of South Bend, secretary of the association, includes a discussion of the operation of school book companies holding contracts in the state under the new law. The superintendents will be paid their per diem for attending.

An effort will be made to get all of the ninety-two county superintendents in the state to attend the meeting. A special effort will be made to interest the superintendents in agriculture as a study in the country schools as well as in a study of the relations between the country school and community life. Superintendent Oscar Thomas will address the assembled educators at one of the sessions.

LOOK OUT FOR STORMS

Hicks Has Tip that Unusual Weather is on the Way, and Bids Prepare Sunspot Gives Warning.

St. Louis, June 18.—Between Wednesday and Friday of this week, because of the new sun spots, there will be terrific storms in this country. Rev. Irl R. Hicks, weather forecaster, who predicted the Galveston tidal wave, the St. Louis cyclone and the recent tornadoes and hail storms in this section, says so. Hicks yesterday discovered a sun spot of huge proportions. He asserts it is moving from the east to the west line of the sun. Hicks says it is the largest seen on the sun for many years. He is sure terrible storms will result, and advises all to be ready.

GARDENING MADE EASY.

Seeds on Strings the Latest Thing for the Amateurs Who Would Grow their Own Beans and Things

A new wrinkle put out by some of the big seed houses this year has been what is called a "seeded string." This is nothing more or less than a tissue paper string filled with seeds of different garden plants. In place now of planting seeds by guess out of the hand one can just lay a string of lettuce or radish in a furrow and cover in less time than it takes to tell it. The rows can be kept straight in this manner and cultivation made easier, it is said—Bedford Democrat.

THE PUTNAM COUNTY HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION

Its Purpose and How it Was Formed.

In a little gathering of women the question of hospital service became the subject of discussion by some incidents related of accidents and sickness, whose victims although receiving the assistance and attention prompted by kindness and sympathy, yet on account of distance were deprived of the nursing and proper equipment which would have been of unquestionable benefit.

It was the opinion of all present at that time, that there should be some place fully equipped to meet such emergencies, in Putnam County, in the vicinity of Greencastle.

There was a suggestion that women in some other places had undertaken and succeeded in establishing and maintaining a hospital—so why not the women of this county?

Three ladies were appointed to inquire into the details of such institutions and investigate the practicability of promulgating and promoting the cause.

This committee, on making careful investigation, called a meeting of women from various parts of the county, by inviting representatives from the different organizations and clubs.

Reports were made by the committee which were very favorable and encouraging and plans for continuing the investigation and for forming an association known as the Putnam County Hospital Association were formulated.

The object of this Association to be the co-operation of the residents of the county to establish, maintain, and operate a hospital. One not large, but commensurate with the needs of the town and county. Fully equipped and up-to-date, in every way equal in advantages to large hospitals of the state, where the infirm, sick, wounded and injured might receive the medical attention of any reputable physician.

The qualifications of membership being an annual fee of two dollars, or any person by the payment of one hundred dollars being constituted a life member.

Persons becoming members, do not become stockholders, nor do they in any way become liable for any debt of the Association.

At a succeeding meeting the Constitution and By-laws were adopted and the officers of the Association were formally elected.

The Constitution provides that the business pertaining directly to the operation of the hospital shall be conducted by a Board of Directors elected by the Association. This Board consisting of twenty-six members. The four acting officers of the Association and one member from each township. The remaining eight being elected from the members of the Association.

The By-laws further provide that there shall be no salary or compensation paid any officer.

When the purpose for which this Association was formed becomes established, the people of Putnam County will have done a work of philanthropy that will not be of benefit to only a few, but to people in all spheres of life.

And we should all be interested, and feel it our duty to do our part, for sickness and disease are as sure as death and none are immune.

THE HOME.

Probably the greatest blessing this life can bestow is a happy home.

A thoughtful person, noting the mad pursuit of pleasure made possible by the present swift modes of transportation, is wont to ponder upon the restless activity and consider deprecatingly how few are the quiet hours the various individuals of the surging throngs allow themselves.

True it is that life is comparatively short and it is the desire of the young especially to miss none of its pleasures, but a quiet spirit is conducive to greater enjoyment than the feverish search for pleasures, many of which perish as bubbles the moment they are grasped. In the retreat called home, should be cultivated that quiet spirit, that lends dignity to existence and hallows the recollections of family associations, so famed in song and story.

It has been often asserted that brick and mortar do not make a home; neither do fine tapestries and costly furnishings. Much as are all of these to be desired, the rarest thing in the earthly home and the costliest is the home spirit; rare because it depends upon the creative power of the various individuals composing it; costly because attained only through self-abnegation and sacrifice. Compare the depth of home spirit revealed in a house created by Millionaire Thaw and his wife and "The Cotters Saturday Night." The poor Scottish peasant and his good wife, with the trials of the week for them and their children, who go out to service, ended, meet in the humble home to renew and refresh themselves in the loving home circle, and the spirit breathed around that fire-side is akin to air celestial.

Love, honor, patience, forbearance, fidelity, trust and the co-operation of individual members are indispensable qualifications to the creation and maintenance of a true and prosperous home. Too long has the sentiment prevailed that upon the home mother devolved the responsibility of creating and maintaining the harmony and integrity of the home.

The gentlemen could bet and gamble and swear, and mayhap, profane life itself; the younger members could go the lengths in indiscretion and irresponsibility and so long as there was a saint in the parlor (or kitchen) at home, the integrity of that home was preserved. In the enlightenment of the present this is a dissolving view. Co-operation in the home, as in business, is the spirit of the time and it is to be cordially welcomed.

Let the young seek their pleasures; this all the world desires for them, but in the rush for pleasure as a relaxation from business or study, let the quiet hour at home fall as a benediction to the soul.

The ideal government will be that which is patterned after the ideal home; when parents who have trained their children to the right, will not be humbled by having them corrupted, when they go from the home influence, by evils licensed and tolerated by the state.

For these reasons, women, weary of the unequal struggle are demanding to be heard in reforms that shall help save the children in the home and prepare them in turn to go out and create for themselves, homes founded on truth and prosperity.

(Mrs.) Lizzie B. Hamrick.

May 20, 1907.

WEDDING IN COLORED CIRCLES

One of the prettiest weddings ever seen in colored circles here took place Monday night when Mr. James Kelley and Miss Ella Reddick were married at the home now to be theirs on east Washington street. The ceremony was performed by Elder Reed of Greencastle. There was appropriate music both vocal and from strings. The house was decorated in mock orange and peonies and was very pretty.

The bride is well known in Greencastle having been employed at Mrs. F. A. Arnold's for many years. The groom has a position at the stone quarry where he has been employed since coming here from Chicago some time since. Many presents were received from a large circle of friends.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to sincerely thank our friends and neighbors for every kindness in our late bereavement.

The Calumets danced at their hall last night. The dance was a "calico affair." Each of the men wore overalls and a hickory shirt while the women wore calico dresses. Music was by a harpist and violinist from Brazil. A most enjoyable evening was the result of the affair.

Oscar Thomas received Tuesday morning samples of the Reading Circle books for the next year. These books are for the joy and edification of the teachers in the public schools. For next year there will be "American History and Geographic Conditions," and "Elementary Education." The first is general in its scope, the second special and technical.

John Lucas, who lives near Brazil was here Saturday guest of his old friend, L. P. Chapin. Mr. Lucas and Mr. Chapin served together in the 4th. Indiana Cavalry for three years. Both were members of Co. B. Mr. Lucas was captured during the latter part of the war and was a prisoner in the Andersonville prison for seven months. When he was released and returned to his company he was so near dead that his comrades believed that he could not live. "But he is still living," said Mr. Chapin this morning. "And from his appearances he will live a while longer." Mr. Lucas stopped off here while on his way to Chicago to visit one of his children.

Those in Brazil who were looking after the interests of the sparing but between Mike Donovan and the "Black Demon" from Boston were so excited by the action taken by Prosecutor Hughes, who, Saturday, ordered the preparations for the fight stopped, that they telephoned the governor of the state and assured him that the contest was to be a mild affair. According to the statement made to the governor, each fighter gave bond to keep the peace between the contestants. The speed "punches" and "counters" are to be regulated by appedometers, and no blows traveling more than twenty feet per second will be allowed. The blows are to be carefully padded with curled hair, and no blows are to be struck without giving warning. Such intention on the part of the fighter. If these were not the case, at least the governor would be given to understand that no one would be hurt, no gore would flow, and nothing low or exciting would be allowed.

William Dias and Mick McLaughlin, the Columbus, Ohio, boys arrested here last week and held for investigation have been released. A telegram to the Columbus chief of police brought no response and the authorities here decided to let the boys go on a promise that they would leave town immediately.

When Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stoner newly wedded entered the train Wednesday afternoon they found each of the passengers reading a small poster with the following facts:

"They are on their honeymoon, introduce yourself and see the bride blush. Let us introduce Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stoner. Any favors shown the young couple will be greatly appreciated. Tell the people about them."

It was the work of joke loving friends, who wished to give the couple an exciting start on their trip.

AN INJECTION THREATENED

CARELESS USE OF DYNAMITE AT STONE QUARRY LEADS LONG SUFFERING CITIZENS TO SEEK THE AID OF THE LAW.

HOUSES AND CISTERNS INJURED

Residents of East Greencastle Fear Plaster Will Fall About Their Ears And Cellar Walls Are Cracked.

Patience has ceased to be a virtue with a considerable number of residents in the eastern part of Greencastle. Life is made miserable by the manner in which high explosives are used at the stone quarry. Cisterns no longer hold water, window lights are broken, plastering cracked, and cellar walls shaken. And all this needlessly. Such heavy charges are not necessary to the work of the quarry. Those who have blasting in charge, instead of using care, have been known to boast that they would shake up that end of town. They have succeeded. Now they are likely to be shaken up themselves.

Several citizens of the east part of town have been consulting attorneys and have come to the conclusion that if the nuisance is not at once abated they will apply to the courts for a restraining order. Many are also objecting to the hauling of dynamite through the business and resident parts of the town, and threats are being made that the law on this point will be looked up and put into effect. All that is asked is moderation. Much of the blasting is of a kind that does no harm. But this firing of excessive charges for the foolhardy purpose of "shaking up the town" must cease.

AMID JUNE FLOWERS

Surrounded by the beauty and fragrance of June flowers Miss Madonna Allen became a June bride this afternoon when she was married to Mr. Ernest Stoner at the home of her father, W. H. Allen. It was one of the prettiest weddings of the season. The parlor was decorated with syringas, peonies and lillies. At two o'clock the bride and groom entered, preceded by Robert Allen and William Lynch bearing respectively the ring and flowers. They walked in time to the Lohengrin wedding march played by Miss Lorena Lovett of Indianapolis. Miss Margaret Kreigh rendered most beautifully the vocal solo, "Because of Thee." The ceremony was performed under an arch of green intertwined with flowers and lighted by candles, the whole room being in the semi-darkness of drawn window curtains. After the beautiful ring ceremony, light refreshments were served in the dining room which was decorated with smilax and sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoner left this afternoon for a trip of some two weeks duration. They were accompanied to the train by a host of friends who were unusually assiduous in their attentions.

Many guests were present from out of town. They were: Lawrence Allen and family of Rushville, D. S. Phares and wife of Tipton, Paul Allen of Lebanon, Archie Allen of Wallace Junction, Cecil Bateman of Louisville, Hazel Lovett of Roachdale, Glenn and Archie Allen of Binbridge, Marie Allen of Brazil and Mrs. James Lynch and son of Danville, Ind.

Many beautiful gifts were received as tokens of esteem from their many friends.

JUVENILE COURT IN PUTNAM

COUNTY CLERK HAS RECEIVED FORMS ADOPTED BY THE BOARD OF STATE CHARITIES, FOR THE USE IN ALL CHILDRENS CASES—NEW LAW PROVIDES FOR ORGANIZATION OF NEW COURT.

TO BE UNDER JUDGE RAWLEY

Putnam county will have a juvenile court in which all childrens cases will be tried. The organization of this court is ordered by the law passed by the last state legislature. The bill which provides for this child's court was ratified by the Board of State Charities.

The county clerk has ordered the forms adopted by the Board of State Charities after consultation with the Attorney General, for the use of childrens cases in the juvenile court. The new law makes it necessary to organize a juvenile court in each county in the state. The Judge of the Circuit Court is ex-officio judge of the juvenile court. The eleven forms to be used follows:

1. Petition of the Board of Children's Guardians.
 2. Writ for Neglected or Dependent Child and for the use of the Board of Children's Guardians.
 3. Board of Children's Guardians, Affidavit of Officer for possession of child.
 4. Order to take into custody child upon petition of Board of Children's Guardians.
 5. Adult contributing to dependence and neglect.
 6. Affidavit, Confirmed Truant.
 7. Affidavit, of Truancy.
 8. Petition, Dependent and Neglected Child.
 9. Affidavit, Delinquent child.
 10. Affidavit, Adult contributing to delinquency.
 11. Transfer and history of case.
- When the juvenile court is organized it is the county clerk's duty to notify all the magistrates in the county to that effect, and that thereafter all cases of children under the legal age, with the history and all the papers in connection therewith, must be transferred to the juvenile court.

HOSPITAL FUND AIDED

Fifty Dollars Added to the Sum Necessary for Success by Herald Woman's Edition Yesterday. Credit Due Mrs. Maze.

It was not through intent or plans carefully laid that the Hospital Edition of yesterday became metamorphosed into the hospital addition. It was without intent and due to a misplaced linotype slug. Nevertheless that misplaced slug builded better than it knew. It was a hospital addition—adding nearly fifty dollars to be exact forty-nine dollars and ten cents, to the permanent fund. The women who had charge of the paper are to be congratulated on their success. Especially is Mrs. Maze to be congratulated and thanked. It was her untiring zeal and energy that placed so many advertisements upon the pages of the paper and added so much to the financial success of the scheme.

Those who contributed the copy for the special features are also to be congratulated. Never has the hospital situation been so thoroughly canvassed, so adequately presented as in the articles in the Hospital Edition. All, however, was not expository. Poetry and fiction had their place and contributed much to the pleasure of those who bought and read the paper. The Herald stands ready again and at all times to contribute what it can to the Hospital Cause.

THE JEWELRY RECOVERED

MRS. J. F. BROGAN SEES RING TAKEN FROM HER HOME ON THE FINGER OF PAUL BLACK AND GRABBED IT OFF HIS HAND. OTHER VALUABLES ARE RECOVERED.

WERE TAKEN BY HOUSEMAID

Officers, With Mr. Brogan go to the Home of Grace Carrington at Reelsville and Secure Two Other Rings Which the Girl Had Taken. Case May not be Prosecuted.

Seeing the ring which had been stolen from her home upon the hand of Paul Black, who had come to her door and asked for a pair of gloves which had been left there by Grace Carrington, Mrs. J. F. Brogan, wife of the general superintendent of Sims & Co., with the exclamation: "This is my ring," grabbed the ring from the young man's hand.

Grace Carrington formerly worked at the Brogan home. She left there about a week ago. Since she left Mrs. Brogan has missed several pieces of jewelry and some other articles of minor value. The jewelry she prized very highly as the rings and breast pin had been given her by her brothers and other relatives. Mrs. Brogan could not account for the disappearance of the jewelry until she saw the ring on the young man's finger. Then she realized who had taken it. Young Black had gone with the Carrington girl while she worked at the Brogan home.

When asked where he had gotten the ring the young man admitted that the Carrington girl had given it to him. He denied that he knew anything about the other jewelry that was missing.

Mr. Brogan immediately got Officers Stone and Reeves, and taking young Black, drove in Sims & Co.'s big car to the Carrington home at Reelsville. The girl at first denied knowing anything of the jewelry. When shown the ring taken from young Black and told that he had said that she had given it to him, the girl broke down, and returned two other rings. She denied knowing anything of the other missing jewelry.

The girl was given until tonight to return the other missing articles. If the property is returned there will be no prosecution by Mr. Brogan. If it is not returned, however, she will swear out a warrant for the girl's arrest.

FLAG DAY

The red, white and blue waving from homes in Greencastle emphasized the beautiful tribute of one day in three hundred and sixty-five being held as a time to do honor and teach reverence for "Old Glory,"—the day was also one of memorial by the Woman's Relief Corps, No. 23, whose custom is to meet upon the 14th day of each June to hold a memorial service and decorate the last resting places of such of their number as have passed into that country from which no one returns.

The band of women, consisting of over thirty active members, accordingly with flags and flowers in abundance repaired to beautiful Forest Hill, gathering about the Soldier's Monument, which for the time was decorated in loveliness, with their bouquets and wreaths, they formed a hollow square, with color bearers in place, then gave in an impressive way, their program of Ritual, song and prayer, followed by a short address by one of their number, after which forming a procession, with two flags leading and two bringing up the rear, they marched to the last earthly resting place of seven of their former friends and co-laborers, and with tender hands left their tribute of remembrance there, returning to the monument to renew their loyal vows to each other and the order for which many years ago they banded themselves together, and resolving each year to do a better work than before. This corps was organized many years ago, and has been efficient aid to the G. A. R. Post 11, and in caring for the widows and orphans of those who died in defense of their country. Of the original members only three are left loyal to their obligations, they met once more, and with a short dismissal left for their homes feeling it to be worth while to do reverential homage to such a cause.

EAST SIDERS COMPLAIN

Say That the Interurban Work Engine Interferes With Their Sleep and That the Smoke and Dirt is Annoying to the Housewives, Asks Mayor to Investigate.

Complaint that the Interurban work engine creates a nuisance by going to a water plug on east Seminary street at midnight each night and at 4 o'clock each morning to get water, has been filed with the mayor by J. P. Hills, who acts as a representative for many of the east end residents.

Mr. Hills was up to see the mayor Monday and made the complaint. He says that the engine comes to the plug which is just in front of his mother's home at midnight every night to get water. He says that it makes much noise and wakens every one in that end of town. Again at 4 o'clock in the morning the engine goes to the hydrant to take water and again wakens every one who lives in the neighborhood. The residents also complain of the smoke and dirt made by the engine. They ask that the company be forced to arrange to get its water some other place.

Mr. Jennings of Farmersburg Loses Control of Machine on Big Hill and Comes to Grief. No One Hurt

The Reelsville Hill scored one today and the victim was a big automobile belonging to Mr. Jennings of Farmersburg. Mr. Jennings with two ladies was turning this part of the state and attempted to negotiate the big hill at Reelsville, lost control of the machine and spilled both machine and passengers in as lively an accident as has been witnessed there in some time. The machine turned completely over, but in some miraculous way the passengers escaped with only a fright and a few bruises. The machine was righted and pulled off the road by horse power this afternoon.

THOUGHT OF HIS MOTHER

LAD TAKEN INTO CUSTODY ON THE CHARGE OF VAGRANCY PLEADS THAT HIS PARENTS BE KEPT IN IGNORANCE OF THE FACT—SAID MOTHER'S HEART WOULD BE BROKEN.

TWO WAYWARD BOYS ARRESTED

William Dias of Cleveland and Mick McLaughlin of Columbus Taken Into Custody by Officers Will be Held Until Folks are Heard From—Knew Runaway Boy Who Was Arrested Earlier in the Day.

"I do not want you to tell my mother. It will break her heart. This is the first time in my life I was ever arrested. Please Mr. Marshal let me go." These were the words of Mick McLaughlin, 18 years old, of Columbus, Ohio, this morning as the Marshal locked the jail bars on him and his companion, William Dias, 20 years old, of Cleveland, Ohio. The boys had just been taken to the jail from the Mayor's office where both had been fined $15 for vagrancy. They were fined in order that they might be held until their parents could be heard from.

Tears were streaming down the boy's face as he pleaded with Marshal Reeves. His plea was most pitiful and would have touched the heart of any mother who could have heard him and seen the anguish in his tear stained face.

The boys were arrested last night soon after they came to the square after having been put off of an east bound Vandalla passenger train. They arrived in Greencastle Wednesday morning and were around town all day. Soon after they were put off of the train they passed the residence of officer Grimes. They were cursing and causing some disturbance at the time and the officer, who was at home, went out and warned them that they had better cease their noise. Later in the evening they were arrested by Officers Grimes and Reeves on the north side of the square. They told the officers that they were looking for work, but the officers believing that they might be runaways took them to jail and this morning were charged with vagrancy.

When the boys were taken to the jail last night they found one of their former companions, Joe Sacks of Columbus, Ohio, who ran away from home and who was arrested earlier in the day, in jail. The boys did not know Sacks was here and of course were greatly surprised to find him in jail.

It was decided to hold the youths and notify their parents of their whereabouts. Both, however, say that their parents know where they are.

It was when the Marshal told McLaughlin that he was going to wire his mother, that the youth pleaded so piteously that she be kept in ignorance of his arrest. "It will break her heart," he said. Nevertheless the Marshal wired Mrs. McLaughlin that her boy was here in jail. Young Dias seems to take his arrest as a mere matter of detail and as the Marshal closed the big iron door of the jail he was consoling his companion by telling him that everything would come out all right.

AS TO THE COUNTY FARM

A Slight Examination of Some Mis-statements Perpetrated Through Ignorance.

PLAIN FACTS FOR TAXPAYERS

The Truth About the Expenses of Our Institution For the Unfortunate Poor.

Our esteemed contemporary of the Republican persuasion had, on Tuesday last, a severe attack of eruptive peanut politicus. All the symptoms were present. These symptoms are a tendency to talk of that which the talker knows absolutely nothing. To mistake and exaggerate any thing actually known. The subject of these attacks is likely to break into print, but under these circumstances fails utterly to make a logical or coherent story.

The last eruption was as follows: What is the matter at the Poor Farm? is a question that was being asked by a number who were in town on Saturday. The statement was made loudly in public, and has often been hinted at on the quiet, that matters are not as they should be at the county farm. The statement is given out that the farm is costing several thousands of dollars more per annum under the present regime, than it did in former years, and a whole lot of tax payers want to know why this is the case. Four thousand dollars is said to be about the amount of the increase. This is over and above the products and receipts of the farm.

—Greencastle Banner.

As before stated it is impossible for one suffering from peanut politicus to state facts or make a logical use of them. Here he states that the increase in expense of last year over previous years is in the neighborhood of $4,000, and this does not include the receipts of the farm. The facts as shown by the sworn statement of the County Auditor for the year 1906 are that the total expenses were $4,382.08. From this there is to be deducted an income of $313.30 received from the farm, making the total cost $4069.68. If the increase in expense is as our contemporary states, then the poor farm has been run heretofore for nothing, or less than nothing.

As a matter of fact there was an increase shown in the gross expenses of 1906 over 1905 of $699. Of this amount, however, $513.20 were for permanent improvements—drain tile, a team of horses for farm work, lumber for the repair of barn, young stock needed on the farm, etc. The full value of these improvements is now on the farm and will remain there for years. The actual increase in expense for the year is $386 which is fully accounted for by the increased cost of living.

These figures, examined more closely, are interesting. The total cost of the asylum last year was $4,382. This less improvements of necessary and permanent character was $3,869. This sum less the income from the farm was $3,556, the amount paid by the tax payers of the county. There were for the year an average of about 44 people cared for by the county, in the summer fewer, in the winter more. The cost of food, heat, light and, in many instances, clothing was thus less than eighty dollars per person. But this is not a fair estimate, for $400 dollars as salary for the superintendent must be taken from this, leaving the actual cost a little over seventy-one dollars per inmate. This is practically $1.50 per week, or 21 cents per day for heat, light, food, and often clothing. Surely human beings could not be kept for less.

But again. There are in the county something over 9,000 tax payers. The amount paid the poor farm was $3,556, or a little over 35 cents each. It may be that the Republican tax payer whom our contemporary consulted objected to giving 35 cents per year for the unfortunate of the county asylum, but we are sure there are no Democrats so inhuman as to begrudge this pittance to the poor of the county.

The next statement by our suffering contemporary is that the county farm should, as a farm, support the inmates. The farm contains less than 190 acres. Some of this is good land, some average, some very poor. Some also is in wood and unproductive. The United States Census report shows the farm of Indiana produced on the average during the last five years less than fifteen dollars gross per acre cultivated. But our superintendent is more than an average man and we will say that of the hundred and fifty acres capable of cultivation, had he nothing else to do, the best of tools and help, might average $20 per acre or an increase of 33 per cent. over average.

START IMPROVED PLANT

Charles Barnaby's Hardwood and Veneer Works Finishes Extensive Improvements in Power Plant—Will Open Monday.

The Hardwood Lumber and Veneer mill of Charles Barnaby, which has been shut down for the last thirty days, will open Monday with much improved facilities in the way of power. Machinists have been busy for the last five weeks installing a new boiler plant which is one of the finest in the state. Three large boilers are quite enclosed in brick and concrete. The tall new stack rests upon a heavy concrete base of its own, and the whole plant is strictly up-to-date and ready to furnish power for any future enlargement of the works.

It is, perhaps, not generally known that the oak from this section of Indiana is considered, by those who know, the finest to be had in this country. It is much superior to southern oak, and commands a premium in the eastern markets. Many thousand logs of this excellent oak are in the yards waiting the opening of the mills Monday.

The farm would yield in the gross $3,000 per year. Any farmer knows that this is an extraordinary showing for a 180 acre farm. This, however, is gross. From this must be taken living expenses in the form of feed for horses, cattle, repairs, wages, seed, which reduces the gross to practically the Government Census figures for Indiana some four dollars per acre. But the Superintendent cannot give his best time to farming. He has neither the best land, tools or help. He is busy with 44 persons. He runs a hotel, a dairy, an asylum, a farm and answers the fool questions and criticisms of Republican papers. Under the conditions it is remarkable that after all the products consumed on the farm and not in any way accounted for, are considered the Superintendent should be able to turn over to the county the net sum of $313.

There is no mismanagement, no increase not absolutely necessary because of a Republican tariff and the excessive charges of trusts fostered by a Republican tariff. The poor asylum has never been run on nothing and never will be. The poor we have always with us. They are human. We trust the Republican tax payer who spoke to our contemporary will not have at any time an opportunity to keep the unfortunate of the county on less than 21 cents a day for food, heat and clothing. We believe the poor in China are supported on three cents a day, the prisoners in Siberia on seven cents a day. Our unfortunates are, however, neither Russian nor prisoners.

When locked in the cell at the jail the old man became very angry and was loud in his denunciation of the

WORSE EVERY YEAR

Plenty of Greencastle Readers Have the Same Experience.

Don't neglect an aching back. It will get worse every year. Backache is really kidney ache. To cure the back you must cure the kidneys.

If you don't, other kidney ills follow—

Urinary troubles, diabetes, Brights disease. A Greencastle citizen tells you how—the cure is easy.

Charles Mizener, electrician, living on Bloomington St., near Washington St., Greencastle, Ind., says: "I know what kidney complaint is because I suffered from it for eighteen years. The trouble was caused I believe, from overwork and my kidneys grew weaker and weaker until every cold I caught settled in the small of my back and I always had to be careful not to overlift or to move quickly. If I did sharp twinges would dart here and there through the loins and often I suffered from dull throbbing headaches. Of course when these spells attacked me I was helpless and would quit work and go to bed. I consulted a doctor and used many remedies, but the relief I obtained was not satisfactory until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Jones' drug store. I had heard them so highly recommended that I thought they might help me and I am thankful to say they did from the first dose. It required only two boxes to entirely cure the kidney complaint and since then I have not had the slightest symptom of the trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills have my earnest endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

POLICE CAPTURE 4 HATS

RAID BY THE ENTIRE FORCE AT NEAR 10 O'CLOCK SATURDAY NIGHT RESULTS IN THE ESCAPE OF FIVE NEGROES FROM A ROOM IN THE NEW BELNAP.

WERE AFTER 'CRAP SHOOTERS

When Marshal Reeves Broke Down the Door the Men Got Out at the Window on to a Roof. All Jumped and Ran But One, Who Hid Under the Bed.

Four hats were captured by the police in their raid on a "crap game" in the New Belnap hotel at near 10 o'clock Saturday night. The entire police force, Officers Grimes, Reeves, Soper and Stone, were in the raid. When the thick smoke of the battle had cleared away and the spoils were divided, each officer had a hat as his share of the spoils. Much excitement accompanied the raid. There was hooting, yelling, screaming and much running around but no one was captured. The police knew the game was in progress and knew the exact location of the room in which the game was going on. It was near 10 o'clock when Marshal Reeves marshalled his force together and guided them to the hotel. The marshal knew that in the second cook's room in the northeast corner of the building a "crap" game was in progress. Leaving Officer Soper on the ground to watch all four sides of the hotel and prevent the escape of any who might attempt to jump out of a window and escape, he took the other three officers up to the door of the room and demanded admittance. This was denied by those in the room, some one of whom immediately blew out the light.

Again the officer demanded admittance but to no avail. The door was then broken down. Just as the officers entered the room four negroes went out a window onto a roof. The officers followed but were too late, as the negroes jumped off the roof into the alley and ran.

Just as one was sliding off the roof Marshal Reeves caught him by the collar. He held the negro suspended in the air until Officer Stone ran down stairs and down to the alley. Then the marshal let the man go. Mr. Crap shooter lit running and Officer Stone did not even get a "look in" at capturing him.

During all this time there was much firing of revolvers by the officers, many commands by them to the fleeing men to halt! These only caused the men to run the faster, however.

While these four "crap shooters" were making their get away another who had been in the room was using more star strategy in making his escape. When the officers knocked at the door he crawled under the bed and then when the officers followed his companions out on the roof he crawled out from under the bed and went down stairs.

All the guests in the hotel were aroused by the shooting and screaming and many of them rushed out into the hallways believing that some thing terrible had happened. They soon were convinced that everything was all right and that the noise and confusion was nothing more than a raid by the police.

After the officers had assured themselves that all of the players had successfully escaped they went back to the room and gathered up four hats, which they took to the mayor's office as the spoils of the raid. Late Sunday evening Officer Grimes went to the hotel and arrested Charley DeBoe, the colored porter at the hotel. He was known to have been in the game. When taken before the Mayor and charged with gambling he pleaded guilty and was fined. The fine was stayed. None of the other players are known to the police. DeBoe is the one who hid under the bed.

ROLLING SALOONS

Railroads Secure State Licenses to Sell Intoxicants on Trains in Indiana.

The sum of $10,000 has been turned over to the state treasury by auditor of State John C. Billheimer as money paid in by railroads which operate in the state and which sell liquor on their trains. A law passed by the legislature requires that railroads which operate in Indiana and which sell liquor on their cars and dining cars shall pay an annual license of $1,000.

Then railroads have complied with the law, thus completing the list of roads which are known to sell liquor on their trains. The Vandalia is the only road through here that has a license.—Frankfort Crescent.

NOT AS BAD AS IT SEEMS

No Panic in Sight, Money in Government Treasury, and Nearly all Crops Improving.

Despite the uncertain conditions of the money market, the alleged gloomy outlook as to crops and any feeling of unrest in industrial and commercial centers, the Government officials say that signs point to a continuance of the prosperous times that have marked the experience of the United States since 1897. The national Treasury is filled to overflowing, receipts from all sources are increasing at a tremendous rate, the national banks are prospering as never before, and Uncle Sam is doing a land office business at the stamp windows of the 70,000 or more postoffices throughout the country.

Recent reports show that the crops with the possible exception of cotton, are not as hard hit as they appeared to be, and with a break in the present unseasonable weather another "bumper" year may be registered by the Secretary of Agriculture.

"Things are looking up," said a member of the Cabinet, whose duty it is to keep in touch with business affairs. "Our prosperity is built on a solid foundation. There is no reason in the world why it should not continue uninterruptedly for a long time to come."

The Government has on hand in the national strong box an available cash balance of $260,000,000. A year ago the cash balance was a little more than $175,000,000. The surplus in the Treasury amounts to $71,804,979. The surplus for the fiscal year, which will end June 30, will in all probability approximate $78,000,000. Last year's surplus was more than $24,000,000.

PUTNAM FARMER MIXED UP

Samuel Lindsey Was in St. Louis And Believed He Was in Terre Haute—"The half Has Never Been Told About the Breweries," He Said After Sightseeing.

Samuel Lindsey, a Greencastle (Ind.) farmer, was in St. Louis for twelve hours, all the while thinking that he was in Terre Haute. After a day of sightseeing Lindsey entered the Terminal Hotel. Mopping his brow he said to Clerk Percell: "Half has never been told about the Terre Haute breweries. They're the biggest things I ever saw."

The clerk nodded assent.

"Terre Haute's a great city, all right," said Lindsey.

"Sure it is," replied the tactful clerk. Lindsey sat around a while, then he advanced to the desk and said: "Can you tell me when the Vandalia train leaves for St. Louis?"

The clerk spent ten minutes convincing Lindsey that he was in St. Louis.—St. Louis special.

WORK FOR SIMS & CO.

RUMOR THAT COMPANY WILL BE GIVEN CONTRACT FOR COMPLETING WORK WHICH IS BEING DONE BY OTHER CONTRACTORS—ITS WORK VIRTUALLY COMPLETED NOW.

HAD 12 MILES TO CONSTRUCT

Last Steam Shovel Will "Dig Out" No Later Than Tuesday Night—Six Miles of Finished Track Already Turned Over to the Big Four.

The last of the steam shovel work to be done by Sims & Co. on the Big Four change of line from Lena to Delmar was completed Tuesday night. When this work was finished that company had moved in all more than two million yards of earth and rock on the job.

Contracts for building the grade and laying the track on more than twelve miles of the new line was let to Sims & Co. and the way they have handled the work has been marvelous. Night and day the mammoth steam shovels and the hundreds of laborers have been kept at the work. Already more than six miles of the work has been completed and turned over to the railroad.

The last steam shovel work to be done is on the section known as the Wick's section which begins at Oakalla. It will take about four weeks to complete the laying of the track and putting on the ballast on the remaining six miles of the new road and then Sims & Co. will be through the work on their original contract.

But it is rumored around town that the company will not leave then. It is said that it has, or soon will receive a contract for finishing the work of the other contractors, which as yet is not nearly completed. The last six miles of road, which will soon be turned over to the railroad by Sims & Co., cannot be utilized by the railroad until the east end of the work is completed. Of course the railroad company is anxious to get trains running on their new line and want the work on the east end completed as soon as possible. The talk around town is that Sims & Co. will be given the contract for completing this work which is at least six months behind.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

Woman at Brazil Attempts to Drown Herself in City Reservoir.

About two o'clock Thursday the most heart rending screams were heard in the vicinity of the new reservoir just across the Pea-Vine tracks near the water works station. People ran to the spot from every direction and were horrified to see a woman and two little girls struggling in the water while a frightened man was doing all he could to rescue them. He managed to get the two children safely to the bank, and with the aid of those who ran to the spot, finally got out the wife. The man was John Burton, middle aged, who resides with his family on West Jackson street. It seems that Burton, his wife and three children had gone to the new reservoir to fish. The husband and one child fished in the old reservoir, while the wife and two daughters, one 12 and the other 3 years old, went to the new reservoir, across the track. The children said that their mother told them that she was going to take a bath, and sprang into the water. He strange actions frightened them and they grabbed her clothing and tried to pull her out. Instead they were drawn into the water, and it was their cries that brought their father. He had to swim across the reservoir to get to the struggling family, and managed to get both children safely to the bank. His wife sang to the bottom twice before finally rescued.

HOODOO A MASCOT

Well That Has Caused Much Trouble Finally Becomes Best Yet Found in the Territory.

The No. 2 well of the Vi-Clay Co. near Cory, which was regarded as the hoodoo of that company, and from which the company expected nothing, came in yesterday, and is really a gusher. In one hour after the oil sand was penetrated oil filled the hole to a depth of nine hundred feet and it is still growing. The company experienced every form of bad luck in the drilling of this well that could be conceived of. However, they are a happy bunch this morning. This company has four producing wells, and the other oil men are entertaining the idea that some of the stockholders, if not all of them, is carrying a rabbit's foot in his pocket. However, it is fact that the company has drilled all of these four producing wells on a forty acre tract of land, and that tract was the one on which the first well in the field was drilled. The fifth well of the company is also going down on this same tract. The stockholders are satisfied that the new well that came in yesterday will prove the biggest producer of any of them. That this company has been a success is evidenced by the fact that their stock, which was sold at $10 a share, is now worth $300 a share.—Brazil Times.

SEND "CAPTAIN" TO GOSPORT

Old Soldier, Who is Insane, Arrested Friday Morning, Finally Gives His Name as George Watson—Has Friends in Southern Part of the State.

After much persuasion by the Sheriff, the Marshal, and Mrs. Maze, wife of the Sheriff, the old soldier who was arrested Friday morning for creating a disturbance on the square, and who is insane, gave his name to the officers. He said his name is George Watson and that he has friends in Gosport.

Marshal Reeves, as soon as he learned these facts, arranged with the township trustee, for a ticket for the transportation of the old man to Gosport. Watson was taken to the Monon depot Saturday afternoon and sent south. He says that he is the captain of 4,000 men and that he is on his way to "Gibraltar."

SMALLPOX ABOUT

Dread Disease Reported in Several Counties of the State the Nearest Being Clay.

Smallpox is spreading and is now reported from several counties in the state. Most of the cases have been contracted outside the state and the disease developed after reaching Indiana. The rigid quarantine enforcement in each instance it is believed will prevent the spread of the disease. Of the Clay county case the Brazil Times says:

A man named Elkins is quarantined in the north part of the county just across the Parke county line with smallpox.

It is not known how Elkins contracted the dreaded disease. Owing to the rigid quarantine, it is believed that no other cases will develop.

HIGH SCHOOL FOR FLOYD

L. C. Wilson, Trustee of Floyd Township Consults With Superintendent Thomas as to Desirable Building.

Floyd township is to have a High School in which the thirty-three graduates of that township's common school may continue their education. Mr. Wilson has an appropriation of $4,500. It is his intention to construct a building that shall serve as high school and common school, and contain three or four more rooms. Mr. Wilson was in consultation with Superintendent Thomas who is more familiar with school house construction than any other man in the county, and though no decision has been reached it is probable that a three room building will be built, the three rooms so arranged that they can all be thrown into one at commencement time, or when large audiences are in the building.

PLAIN CLOTHES FOOLED HIM

William Wilson Did Not Know That the Man Sitting on the Bench Was an Officer and as the Result He Now is in Jail. Wanted a Cigar for Nothing.

"I want that cigar but I have no money to pay for it." These were the words of William Wilson, a railroad laborer, who went into Art Jackson's restaurant on the east side of the square Tuesday night and asked for a smoke. Mr. Jackson was sitting out in front of his restaurant on a bench with Marshal Reeves when the man went into the restaurant. Jackson got up and went in to wait on the man. The officer remained on the seat.

"I have no cigars to give away," said Mr. Jackson. That started Wilson and as he left the restaurant he cursed and abused Jackson in a most shocking manner.

Reeves, at this stage of the game took a hand and arrested Wilson. The latter did not recognize Reeves as an officer until he got up from the bench as the latter wore his citizen's clothing. He then fought the officer and was not subdued until another man, who saw the predicament of the officer, went to his assistance and helped him take the man to jail. This morning in police court Wilson was fined $11. He had no money so will lay out the fine in jail.

STATE COMMISSIONER HERE

Doubtful Points in County Assessments Cleared Up by State Representative. Average Condition of Farm Land Sought.

Commissioner McArdle who was with the Board of Review during their afternoon session Tuesday made clear some points that have been bothering the Board and had previously bothered the township assessors. Chief of these points was the valuation of the incomplete roads steam and interurban, now in progress of construction throughout the county. These were not assessed by the township men, and the matter came before the Board for settlement McArdle advised that the land of the right of way be assessed at its per acre valuation as farm land, and that the work done upon the land in grading, placing of rails, poles and ties should be valued as improvements.

The state has been bothered of late years by the unequal values assessed on land of the same kind in adjoining counties. Mr. McArdle is visiting the various counties and getting at first hand the idea of those capable of judging as to the comparative value of the townships. They are to be rated as poor, average good and very good, and the state proposes to equalize the assessed values, basing its action upon the conditions of the townships of each county.

SMALL INCREASE IN REAL ESTATE

Value of Putnam County Increases Three Per Cent. But Value of Improvements Goes Down.

The Board of Review has been steadily plodding through its wearisome labors in the Commissioner's room at the court house, and the end is in sight. Some interesting things have been shown by the examination of the books. One remarkable thing is that the value of real estate in Putnam has not increased as much as was expected. The land itself shows an increase of three per cent, but the value of the improvements upon the land has fallen off to such an extent that the net increase of the real estate is little more than one per cent.

This does not show a lack of prosperity, however. The returns on personal property are not yet quite complete but so far as they are there is indication that there will be an increase in the value of such property, outside the cities, of nearly ten per cent. If further investigation should confirm these figures it would show excellent conditions existing on Putnam county farms.

GREENCASTLE WOMEN DO THINGS

The women of Greencastle have agreed that the time has come for the building and equipment of a hospital in that city or in county near by. One hundred and three women have already become members of an association to be known as the Putnam County Hospital Association.

Already eleven hundred dollars have been handed in to the Association without solicitation. The committees appointed will swell that amount to quite enough if not more than the amount necessary to complete the buildings contemplated. It is an established fact that when a body of women start out to do things and the object also meets the approval of men they are bound to make good. The Greencastle Herald Monday, June 17, added a big amount to the hospital fund by the donation of the proceeds of the day's advertising matter to the fund. Several of the women members of the association contributed articles to that issue referring to the work and its prospects and a greater interest was awakened by the assistance of The Herald.—Martinsville Reporter.

ENGINEER PAINFULLY HURT

Engineer Cobb, who runs a dinky for the National Engineering Co., near Delmar, made a misstep late Tuesday afternoon and fell from his engine. In falling he struck on his back across a rail of the track, breaking a rib and seriously tearing the ligaments of the back. Dr. McGaughey was called and attended the injured man. The injury is not likely to prove serious, but it is exceedingly painful, and means a considerable time in bed and a slow convalescence.

GROVELAND.

It is now "Where-What and When" in Old Floyd and it all applies to the school house that is to be or not to be built. There seems to be strenuous objections to each and every plan or proposed location, yet it seems as if "Old Centre" is the choice of the majority of patrons, but nevertheless we "Grovelanders" think that we have some claims for consideration. Our school has been very much over crowded for several years so much that no one teacher has been able to do the pupils or himself justice. There seems to be a missing link in our school law, there are provisions for combining weak schools but none for relief of the over crowded. We are proud of our crop "per acre" of graduates, and feel hopeful that the matter will be so settled that no ill will will be engendered to interfere with our future crop of graduates. May there be many "per acre" or otherwise, live long and prosper.

We Grovelanders are inclined to throw bouquets at ourselves. We are proud of our good roads, (and more a coming.) Our two mail routes, two churches, school, one good store, mill, blacksmith shop, Masonic Lodge and last but not least, the best O. E. S. Chapter in the state, considering age and location. We only need, that new school house and the "trolley" to complete our happiness. One or both we are bound to have some day soon we hope and think.

Mrs. Sherrey and Mrs. Van Bibber of Brazil are having a couple of weeks outing at Adrtion.

R. P. Hiland and wife of Bainbridge, Mrs. Alice Davis and family of Greencastle and John Weaver of Pittsburg, Pa., spent Sunday with N. W. Ader.

It is sure good to eat the luscious strawberry in the cool shade of our now sure enough summer while listening to the music of the splashing water in the fountain.

The ladies of Groveland Chapter No. 230 O. E. S. are making things hum like a beehive. Meeting almost every week. We had the pleasure of meeting with them at their regular meeting Tuesday night, when they conferred the degrees upon several candidates. The several officers rendered their part of the work with such ease and correctness that, while it surprised the writer, it showed that they had given the ritual much serious study. Miss Lillie Cully of Bainbridge also assisted. After work came recess and refreshments, these while not amounting to a feast were ample in variety and quantity and plainly proved that these good women were capable of serving many good things as well as dispensing brotherly love, relief and truth.

The Blue Lodge also having a mid-summer revival. How things do grow when the weather is right.

H. W. Graham had a valuable young mule badly cut in barb wire fence last week.

Misses Francis Collier and Lillie Cully of Bainbridge attended Chapter Tuesday night. They were guests of Mrs. Martha Ader.
